

monday

tuesday

wednesday

thursday

friday

saturday

In your mother's womb, God formed you. Every detail was uniquely and intricately designed by God with precision and care. You are not an accident or a mistake!

Psalm 139:13-16 1

Male and female, God created all of mankind in His image. What a miracle that the God of the universe placed His very nature in each of us. He is the one that breathed life into our very beings!

Genesis 1:26-27 2

Just like an artist creating a beautiful masterpiece, your Heavenly Father crafted you from the dirt of the earth. You have been made into a vessel to carry His love and life!

Isaiah 64:8 3

God knows you better than you know yourself! Your Creator is attentive to every detail of your life. It wasn't just for your creation, but also for your current existence.

Matthew 10:30 4

God created you

The Lord's love is with you. For generations, He has kept His promised covenant to love and care for His people. You are not exempt from this promise. You are Loved by Him!

Psalm 103:17-18 6

You are a daughter of God. Just like a perfect Father loves their children, so does God love you. It's not a love we earn – it's a love that's always available for us!

1 John 3:1 7

Love is not just a feeling – it's an action. There are countless ways God loves you. Including His nearness, salvation, and joy! How has God revealed His love to you in your life?

Zephaniah 3:17 8

Reflect on this: "God is love" and "there is no fear in love." When we encounter the flawless love of our Lord, we never have to be afraid again. Since love is God's very nature, we can trust Him with our lives!

1 John 4:8-19 9

God's love is not a rewards system or an equal exchange of our good works. He loved fully and wholly even when we didn't know Him and sinned against Him. There's nothing you can do to gain or lose His love.

Romans 5:8 10

Nothing can separate you from the love of God. He is for you and is not withholding His love for you. How can God use you to share this kind of love with others around you?

Romans 8:31-39 11

God created you to receive love

You are the extension of God's hands and feet on this Earth. When He created you, He already planned in advanced what you would do with your life. You are useful in the Kingdom of God!

Ephesians 2:10 13

Jeremiah received a powerful calling into how God would use His life and God can do the same for you. Seek His voice for direction and purpose today.

Jeremiah 1:4-9 14

In Christ you have been set apart and chosen to declare His light dark world. Don't underestimate how God wants to use you to bring His love and truth to people around you.

1 Peter 2:9 15

God not only has a plan for you, but He has a good plan for you. You can trust that God knows you and has had you in mind from the beginning of creation to have purpose in the world.

Jeremiah 29:11 16

Whenever you step out in obedience to follow what the Lord has for you, know that He will complete the work that you have begun. You are not alone! He will carry you through any season.

Philippians 1:6 17

Whether you're anxious or excited about the future, know that the Lord's purposes in your life will come to pass! The best thing about this is that He knows what's best and will work all things for your good.

Proverbs 19:21 18

God created you with purpose

Read this verse a few times over. Have you been experiencing anxiety lately? Know that you have been made for peace and joy in Jesus Christ and His Spirit can console you with this truth.

Psalm 94:19 20

God's presence is for you and whenever He enters a place, joy can be found. If you are lacking joy, ask God to come right where you are at.

Psalm 16:11 21

The most wonderful gift we could ever receive is salvation in Jesus Christ. You are forgiven, you are freed, you are clean, and you have an eternal home – let those truths bring a smile to your face today.

1 Peter 1:8-9 22

You may be weeping in this season – troubled by what is going on around you or inside you. Know that however long the night might seem to last, joy will always come!

Psalm 30:5 23

What are you in need of today? Whatever it may be, simply ask God for it. Just like asking a kind dad, our Heavenly Father freely gives to meet His children's needs. And, when we see our prayers answered, there is joy!

John 16:23-24 24

Whenever you feel loss or sadness, God still meets you with joy. You may be in a season of toil, but God will produce a harvest overflowing! Your tears do not go to waste. They will produce something beautiful!

Psalm 126 25

God created you for joy

Just as we are united with Christ, He created us to be united with one another. There is blessings and life forevermore for those living in unity. How can you make unity a priority in your community of friends?

Psalm 133:1 27

Though we each have different gifts, we belong to the body of Christ. Just as a body has many parts, so does the church. What gifts do you have as a part of the body of Christ? Thank God for them today!

Romans 12:4-5 28

The early church took place in people's home. As Christ-followers, they shared life together. How could you emulate this with your friends? Try it out by hosting a night of prayer at your home and see what God will do!

Acts 2:46-47 29

When we gather with other believers, God's presence comes. Not only at church, but also in your home, the car, at school or even a phone call. The "who" matters more to God than the "where."

Matthew 18:20 30

God created you for community